

ZACH NEWLIN RACING

TEAM INTRODUCTION

Zach Newlin Racing (ZNR) is a family-owned, 410ci sprint car team based in Millerstown, Pennsylvania.

The team has competed in go-karts, micro sprints and the 305ci sprint car division since 1998, winning many races and championships along the way. They moved on to 358ci sprint car competition in 2020 and reached victory lane their very first year. Zach also won Williams Grove Speedway's Rookie of the Year that season.

After initially entering the 410ci sprint car division in the seat of a few other cars, 2023 plans are to bring back the familiar family-owned 11z in the 410 division. It will be a building year for the team who is hoping to grow into a top weekly competitor on the touch Central Pennsylvania circuit.

RACING CAREER

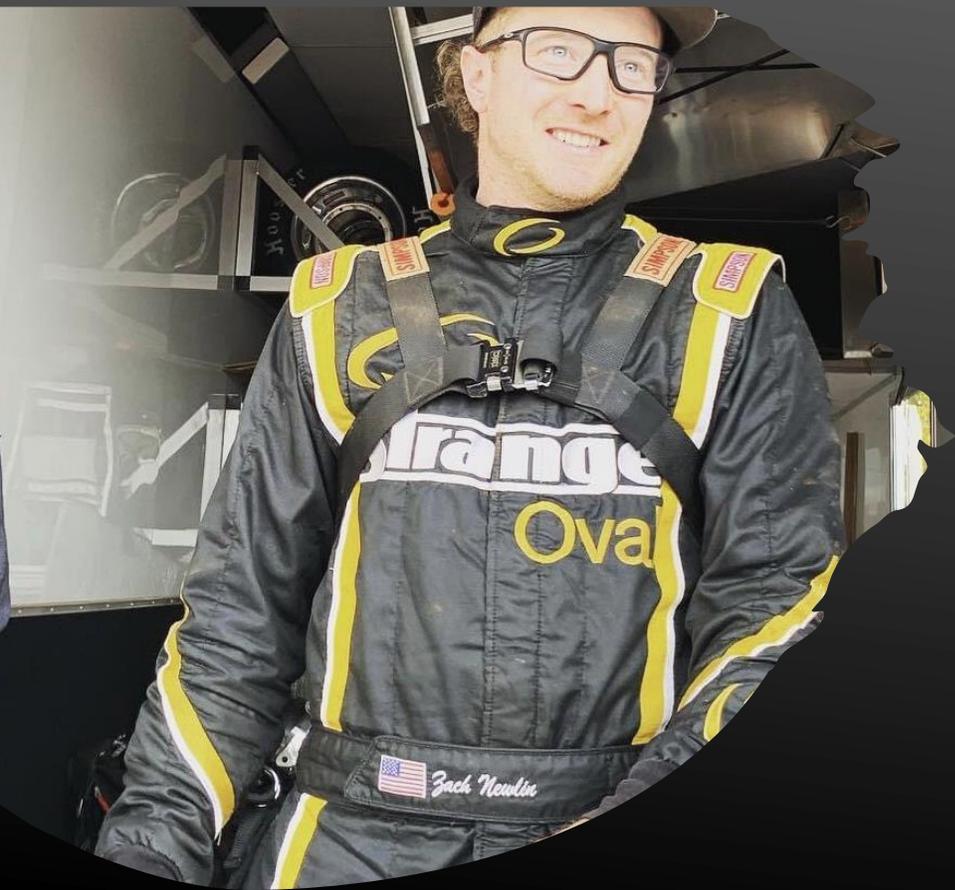

Zach Newlin is a sprint car driver in Pennsylvania. "Zach Daddy" started racing in go-karts in 1998 at the age of 10, stepped up to 600 micro sprints in 2005, moved into 305 sprints in 2013 and in 2020 advanced into the 358 sprint car ranks.

Opportunity knocked late in the 2020 season to dip his toe into the 410 sprint car world. He continued that venture on a limited basis in 2021 and grabbed some attention by qualifying for his first career World of Outlaws feature with less than 20 starts under his belt.

2023 PLANS

An exact schedule will be determined at a later date. The goal for the upcoming season is realistic. The team is working to accumulate enough resources to race at least a dozen times, to enable them to make laps and learn.

Exactly which events, the location of those events, and the total number of events the team enters will be dependent on the partnerships they establish.
